

FCPC Provides Meeting Space for Caring Ministry Support Groups

Alcoholics Anonymous

AA meets every Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m. at the church. This is an open meeting and all who struggle with alcohol and substance abuse are invited to attend.

Adult Children of Alcoholics Anonymous

Adult Children of Alcoholics are encouraged to attend this support and informational meeting. The group meets on Thursday evenings at 8:00 at the church.

Stroke Survivors Group

The Stroke Survivor Connection is a group rehabilitation and support program sponsored by the Visiting Nurse Association of Allegheny County. It offers a weekly opportunity for stroke survivors and family members to continue rehabilitation and prevent regression. The program is free, open to all and meets at the church on Tuesday mornings at 10:30 a.m.

Grief Share

Bereavement support through a series of classes on grief and loss for individuals who have lost a loved one. Grief Share is a non-denominational Christian centered grief support group which is open to both members of the church and the community-at-large. Whether you have lost a parent, a sibling, neighbor or friend, you will find these sessions helpful and hopeful. Two 13 week sessions held yearly. Contact Joan Hogge at 412-963-8243.

Pittsburgh Pastoral Institute (PPI)

Our church serves as a satellite location for Pittsburgh Pastoral Institute, to provide professional and confidential counseling to members and the local community. Contact Joan Hogge.

Caring Ministries

Prayer Ministry

We carry on an active ministry of prayer and invite you to join your prayers with those of many other faithful ones as we raise our joys and concerns to the Lord. Call the church office at 412-963-8243 to let us know of concerns. A prayer list is printed weekly and prayers are raised both at home and in worship for members and friends.

Stephen Ministry

Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church has a strong Stephen Ministry program. Lay people involved in Stephen Ministry go through a 50-hour training program in the spring before being teamed with a care receiver who is going through a time when they need a strong Christian friend to walk with them. Regular supervision and continuing education are important parts of the program. Whether you need a Stephen Minister or would like to be one, contact Lee Nichols at 412-963-8243 for more information.

Hospital Ministry

Our pastors call on members and friends who are in local hospitals. Please call the church office to keep us informed of admissions and discharges and let us know of any special needs. Confidentiality and privacy concerns are honored as requested.

Ministry to Shut-Ins

Lay people and pastors from Fox Chapel Presbyterian call regularly on those who are shut-in. Contact Lee Nichols at 412-963-8243 for information.

Helping Hands-Healing Hearts

Is a volunteer organization formed in 2004 as the Jubilee Mission Project of FCPC to promote palliative and hospice care for children with life-threatening conditions. Through education, information and volunteerism, the goal of HH-HH is to enable families and health care professionals to provide the best possible quality of life for very ill children and their families throughout the Pittsburgh metropolitan area.
