

Middle School Trips

Surf City - A 5 day camp on Lake Michigan that helps middle school students learn of God's love for them and what it means to live for Christ through really fun, energetic games, water sports, worship, speakers, and skits. The camp consists of many of the surrounding Pittsburgh youth groups and is run by the Pittsburgh Kids Foundation.

Laurelville- A fun-packed weekend retreat in the Laurel Mountains. The retreat consists of many of the surrounding Pittsburgh youth groups and is run by the Pittsburgh Foundation. Kids will get to experience a much-needed time away from the pressure and frustrations of being a teenager. They will get to do a lot of fun games, including an optional mud pit, and be deeply moved by an encouraging and loving speaker, an awesome worship band, and space to have to those important conversations with their youth leaders.
