Highlights

What is an Interim Pastor?

Times of transitions in our lives are often exciting, filled with both anticipation and optimism. However, they are also frequently times of stress, anxiety, uncertainty and a sense of loss for what is being left behind. Churches are very much the same. Transitions in churches are often accompanied by feelings of grieving, uncertainty, confusion, loss of trust, loss of confidence, perhaps anger or any number of other emotions which are often present. These are all common and normal, but it is important that they be resolved in order for the church to be able to move forward successfully.

Interim Pastors are specifically trained to work with churches in transition, guiding them as they work to resolve these or any of the myriad other feelings that are often present. Their usual term of service is 1-2 years. They help the church to identify and resolve any underlying issues which might be present but unrecognized. When necessary, as independent agents, they can ask the difficult questions which sometimes need to be asked. They help the church to celebrate its heritage, and to move forward with renewed optimism, spiritual energy and commitment as they await the arrival of the next Installed Pastor.

The data are very clear that when churches do not do the Interim Pastor work before moving forward to call a new Installed Pastor, that Installed Pastor is much more likely to stay for 3 or 4 years and then leave, as compared to Installed Pastors in churches that have done the preparatory work, who experience a much higher rate of successful, long-term ministry in that church.

Our Interim Pastor Nominating Committee has been meeting weekly conducting a national search for more than 4 months. We are quite encouraged by the progress and are extremely optimistic about our future at FCPC. Please continue to pray that their Spirit will guide all of us as we move forward together in His service.

Again this year, the Cook-Off will remember its late, great champion of champions, B.J. Ferguson. Cooks: Sign-ups will be held on January 4, 11 and 18 before and after each service in the Red Tile Area and Fellowship Hall.

Awards will be given to the top 3 finishers in the categories of Traditional Recipes, Non-Traditional Recipes, Youth Entries and Vegetarian/Heart Healthy Recipes.
