Highlights

A Welcome to All

Welcome to Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church for this special time of worship on Christmas Eve. Whether you are here for the first time, here after being away for a while, or here every week, you are welcome here.

There's a place here for you. FCPC is a congregation that invites all people to experience the joy of God's love and acceptance, the support of a caring community of faith, and the transformation that comes with study and service together. Take a look at this newsletter and our website (www.fcpc.us) to see how you can join in! And reach out to one of our pastors if you'd like to meet or talk.

Thank you for joining us on Christmas Eve. May the wonder of God's love in Jesus be a special gift to you this Christmas and always.

Join Us for Sunday Worship

At FCPC, we experience thoughtful, thematic liturgy, which includes the prayers and spoken responses of the congregation. Our music ranges from the majestic organ and professional quartet to acoustic guitar and a full worship band. All are welcome in our worship services!

One Service Sunday - Farewell to Pastor Doug

December 28 | 10 AM | Fellowship Hall

Join us for a combined One Service on the last Sunday of the month at 10:00am in the Fellowship Hall, where we will be singing our favorite carols. We will also thank our beloved Bridge Pastor Doug Marshall for his time here at FCPC. The Fellowship Team will be serving coffee, apple cider, donut holes and mini-quiches before and after the service.

What a great way to continue the Christmas season and to say thank you to Pastor Doug. Looking forward to seeing you there!

Bridge Pastor Update

We have been blessed to have Pastor Doug with us as a Bridge Pastor. His term ends at the end of the month. We have been blessed by his ministry with us and wish him all the very best on his move.

We are very pleased to announce that Rev. Jim Gilchrest has agreed to serve as our Bridge Pastor beginning January 4th. Jim is well known to many in the congregation since he was a Bridge Pastor here before and was extremely well received. He was a greatly loved senior Pastor at Westminster Presbyterian Church for many years until his retirement several years ago. He is an Adjunct Instructor at Carnegie Mellon University as well as being very active in Presbytery and other organizations. He will be our Bridge Pastor on a 60% time base. We will be blessed by his renewed ministry with us.

Children and Youth Ministries

An Invitation

If you are visiting us for tonight's service and you do not have a church home, we invite you to join us on a Sunday to see if this might be a place your family can grow.

At FCPC, we believe that kids can grow best when their family is part of a community that can support them through all of the various phases, joys, and (yes, let's admit it) trials of childhood and adolescence, and we would love to be this kind of community for your family.

So we invite you to visit us on a Sunday or for any of our regular church programs. Visit, listen, ask questions, come again if you feel so inclined. You are welcome anytime!
