

Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church is seeking a Chancel Choir Section Leader to provide vocal leadership and foster a welcoming, musical community within our Chancel Choir. The Section Leader will support the spiritual life of the church by unifying our worship through music. The Section Leader reports to the Minister of Music and works under the direction of the Worship & Music Committee and Session. This role collaborates closely with pastoral staff, program staff, volunteers, and the wider Music Ministries team. Competitive compensation based upon experience.

Responsibilities:

Provide vocal leadership in Sunday 11:00 a.m. services, as well as high holy days (Christmas Eve, Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, etc.) or other special services. Attend all choir rehearsals, worship services, and concerts—arriving on time and fully prepared. Lead sectional rehearsals as needed and scheduled. Contribute to a welcoming and encouraging choir environment, attending social gatherings when possible. Assist in welcoming new choir members and guest musicians, and follow up with choir members as needed. Join quarterly music staff meetings and collaborate with the Minister of Music.

Qualifications

Proficient sight-reader with the ability to interpret moderately complex choral music. Strong pitch accuracy, vocal blend, and responsiveness to musical direction. Must pass all background clearance requirements in accordance with FCPC's Child Protection Policy. A joyful spirit of service within a Christian faith community and a desire to worship through song is strongly preferred.

To Apply
